Mr. Greg Bennett

Thanks again for your insight Greg. It is so easy to get off on a tangent designing a system when you are not quite qualified in that area of expertise. Your visit brought me back to reality. I like the way you think. Your practical advice is going to save me thousands of dollars. You designed your way right out of a sale knowing that it was in my best interest ...I recognize and appreciate that. "Cascade" recommended you guys when I called looking for information on the F-Series roll clamp and now I know why. I look forward to future dealings with your company.

Sincerely,

Peter Lukasik
